Trip Overview

- Passage To South Africa

We have distilled 260 years of know-how into curating five star premium experiences on our journeys to South Africa.

Cox & Kings has offered the highest quality group tours for generations and over that period we have built a deep understanding of the key ingredients to create an enjoyable tour in South Africa. These include well - planned and comfortably paced itineraries, expert guidance on the ground, free time to explore on your own and last but not least, the congenial company of like-minded travelers.

Every bit of South Africa is stunning. Whether it's the powdery beaches that invite you to laze on them all day, or burning sands of the Kalahari that inspire your sense of adventure; whether it's the carpet of vineyards or the endless dramatic coastlines that you want to stare at all day, South Africa mesmerizes all. Along with all that beauty is a turbulent past that you cannot leave without learning and appreciating. Those with more adventure in the hearts can even indulge in adrenaline pumping activities and multi-day treks through the bush. And then of course, there's the wildlife. It is majestic, it is stupendous and it simply takes your breath away.

- About Your Trip

Our Destination Experts have designed itineraries that enlighten and excite travelers and transform experiences into unforgettable memories of South Africa creating a perfect introduction to South Africa.

Nature in all her glory welcomes travelers to South Africa. Explore scenic Cape Town and the iconic natural wonder of Table Mountain. Discover 17th and 18th-century wine estates in the wine region and savor gastronomical delights at Franschhoek. Experience delight when you see penguins and fur seals on the Cape Peninsula. Feel the thrill as you spot Africa's 'Big Five' on a luxury safari, hear the thunder of the majestic Victoria Falls. Cruise on the Zambezi River as you watch the sunset. And stroll through Maboneng, one of the coolest neighborhoods in the country.

- About Your Stay

Your comfort, privacy and safety are of paramount importance. We have sifted carefully through a number of hotels, luxury camps and selected those that will offer you the best experience on your journey with us.

The Cape Grace hotel is situated on a private quay that allows guests to soak in the natural beauty of Cape Town. It's elegant and warm atmosphere, attention to detail and mountain-facing rooms promise guests a wonderful experience.

Le Quartier, Franschhoek, is a luxury boutique hotel that is set in private perfumed gardens with mountain views. Guests here experience the best of two worlds thanks to the strong French influence on this valley.

Da Vinci Hotel and Suites is a contemporary masterpiece! Legacy's latest luxury hotel and all suites development, this iconic property is located adjacent to the prime location of Nelson Mandela Square. One could speak of its opulence of the rooms, the restaurant and lounge, pioneering fitness centre and health spa - all put together this makes a perfect package.

Lion Sands River Lodge is the origin of the Lion Sands safari - the elemental safari. Expect nothing less than a sophisticated interpretation of the traditional safari lodge, with an emphasis on clean lines, optimised natural light and contemporary decor. OR

Kapama Lodge is nestled between the Blyde River Valley and Kruger National Park, offering an escape for nature lovers from across the globe. With its light, airy, open spaces and views from every angle, Karula is truly the pride of Kapama as its flagship lodge. Effortlessly elegant and stylish, Karula Lodge will steal the breath of even the most seasoned traveller. OR

Kambaku River Sands is a completely unfenced camp which is home to a continuous stream of game, with almost daily up close and personal experiences with Elephant, Buffalo, Hyena, Warthog and Bushbuck to name but a few.

The Victoria Falls Hotel is Zimbabwe's grandest and oldest luxury hotel. It commands a prime location that overlooks Victoria Falls. Offering style, glamor and sophistication, this hotel was built in 1904 but is equipped with every amenity you will need. OR

The Royal Livingstone hotel Zambia, is a sheer luxurious experience overlooking a natural wonder. Bask in graceful safari style only steps from one of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World. Sweeping Zambezi River and garden views stretch from every veranda as you relax in elegance.

- At Your Service

Travelling in a small-group tour provides peace of mind while abroad. Your local guides and your Tour Director are there to handle all logistical details-- additionally all our clients have access to our 24/7 customer service line locally as well as an emergency line in the USA.

Even though you may be far from home, 24/7 support is only a phone call away.

Begin the day visiting iconic Table Mountain, named one of the Seven Wonders of Nature. Following a short ascent in a revolving cable car, enjoy breathtaking views of Cape Town and the Cape Peninsula from the level mountaintop. For those more adventurous, Cox & Kings offers the option of hiking up Table Mountain with a guide.

Take an afternoon visit to historic Robben Island Prison.

In the afternoon, take a scenic ferry ride across Table Bay to Robben Island, where you'll visit the infamous prison that's now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Meet a former prisoner to learn about the life of inmates including Nelson Mandela.

Meet a former prisoner to learn about the life of inmates, including Nelson Mandela, who spent nearly two decades imprisoned on the island.

 Overnight at Cape Grace Hotel Cape Town.

 Breakfast

Table Mountain, Cape Town

Day 3 Cape Peninsula

Cape Town

Spend a full day touring the stunning Cape Peninsula, including Hout Bay and Cape of Good Hope.

Spend a full day touring the Cape Peninsula. This morning, cruise picturesque Hout Bay to view the flora and fauna that inhabit the region's rocky coastline, including a colony of Cape fur seals on Duiker and Seal Islands. Later, disembark and drive toward the Cape of Good Hope, passing through quaint villages along the way.

Enjoy lunch at renowned restaurant The Foodbarn.

Stop in the village of Noordhoek to have a sumptuous lunch at The Foodbarn, the fine-dining restaurant of critically-acclaimed chef Frenck Dangereux.

Visit Boulders Beach to get up close and personal with African penguins.

This afternoon, reach the southernmost tip of the Cape Peninsula. Take the Flying Dutchman Funicular (or choose to hike) up to the Cape Point Lighthouse. Enjoy the expansive views of the rugged coastline that surrounds Cape of Good Hope.

On the way back to Cape Town, stop at famous Boulders Beach to view the African penguins, once over one million strong and today considered an endangered species.

 Overnight at Cape Grace Hotel Cape Town.

 Breakfast , Lunch

Penguins on Boulder Beach, Cape Peninsula

Day 4 Cape Town - Cape Winelands

Franschhoek

Take a morning tour to main city sights, including the Castle of Good Hope, Company Gardens, and Grand Parade.

Before departing Cape Town, tour some more highlights of the city. Visit the Castle of Good Hope, the oldest surviving colonial building in South Africa, and the South African Museum, founded in 1825 and home to over half a million artifacts. Stroll through Company's Gardens, once a produce market for both locals and ships passing through, and now a place to see many of the city's national landmarks. Finally, visit the Grand Parade, the city square where Nelson Mandela addressed the nation after his release in 1990.

Depart for the town of Franschhoek in the Cape Winelands, renowned for delicious wine and stunning scenery.

Next, head south to Franschhoek, in South Africa's beautiful wine region. Founded by French Huguenots in 1688, the town has retained distinctive architecture and developed a reputation as the culinary capital of South Africa.

Enjoy a delicious lunch with a wine tasting at an award winning restaurant.

What You Should Know Before You Go

Passport

A valid passport is required for U.S. citizens and for other nationalities. It should remain valid for at least six months after completion of travel. There must be at least two blank visa pages for each entry into the country. When traveling to multiple countries, be sure to calculate the total number of blank pages required for your specific journey. Please note that the last three pages for amendments and endorsements in the passport are not considered visa pages.

South Africa Visa

No visa is required for stays of fewer than 90 days.

Children under 18:

All visitors under 18 years of age are required to present original or certified copies of an unabridged birth certificate (identifying both parents) that will be verified against the passports of the accompanying parents. If a child is traveling without both parents, an affidavit is required from the parent(s) of the child granting permission to enter and depart South Africa with the minor along with copies of the passport of the non-accompanying parent(s) and their contact details. Entry information is for U.S. citizens. Citizens of any other country should check with the South African Embassy for specific entry requirements.
